

F3340 Filters – The F3340 filter is perfect for applications with high water flow and poor water quality. Its unique nozzle design minimises the volume of backflush water to allow excellent operation during flush mode. The F3340 has a multi layered stainless steel screen, upright design for a small footprint and robust construction with 300 micro coating.