

D5000 Drip Line represents the most significant advancement in PC drip technology in the past decade. The D5000 PC Drip Line has been engineered to outperform all pressure compensating drip lines on the market. This uniquely designed dripper provides maximum resistance to clogging and is designed to provide growers with the best tools. Offering a wide range of flow rates, diameters and spacing to match the soil infiltration rate to maximize efficiency in the field.